Pastoral Care: First Heal the Healers The Rev. Barry Heath, D. Min., Instructor

This workshop will first examine the subject of spiritual pain: understanding, diagnosing, and responding to it. Before we can do these things for someone else however, we must first examine our own experience and learn from it

The first part of this workshop will examine our experience and learning in this area of spiritual pain. Then we will explore several practical aspects of bringing this care to others including ideas for hospital calls, in home calls, short-term and long-term relationships.

Barry is an Honorably Retired member of Cascades Presbytery having served as Pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church and then Director of Pastoral Care at Salem Hospital. Currently he is Administrator and Facilitator of the Sacred Art of Living Center in Bend, an international educational organization teaching spiritual care to staffs of hospices, hospitals and faith communities.

Cascades Lay Institute classes are designed for all persons interested in learning more about what it means to be Presbyterian and those who wish to develop leadership skills including those persons wanting to become Commissioned Lay Pastors or Certified Christian Educators.
