

The Congregational and Professional Support Committees are pleased to provide an opportunity for

“Conversations With Don McKim”

Thursday, March 11, 2010

10:00 until 2:00

Westminster Presbyterian Church, Portland

Don will be attending our March Presbytery meeting in his capacity as editor of the new adult curriculum series for the Presbyterian Church (USA) entitled Being Reformed: Faith Seeking Understanding. He will be leading a pre-presbytery workshop Friday morning on that topic as well as giving a short presentation Friday afternoon during the meeting itself.

But, the day before, Don is available to meet with educators and anyone else who is interested in having the opportunity to talk theology, Christian education or the work of the church in general.

Westminster Presbyterian Church has graciously offered to host this event. A light lunch will be provided. A RSVP to Melissa Olmsted by March 10 would be appreciated so adequate food can be provided.

For those of you who do not know Dr. Donald K. McKim, he is the executive editor for Theology and Reference for Westminster John Knox Press. He is a Presbyterian minister who has been a seminary theology professor and academic dean. He is editor and author of a number of books on Reformed theology such as Introducing the Reformed Faith; Presbyterian Beliefs, An

Introduction; Presbyterian Questions, Presbyterian Answers
and The Westminster Handbook to Reformed Theology. Don
