

Cross-Cultural Partnership Grant Funding

Introduction

Presbytery has allocated $30,000 to encourage Presbytery entities to partner in cross-cultural ministry through grants administered by Cascades' Committee on Representation (COR) in consultation with the Board of Trustees. This came out of reflection on the Presbytery's own history, our faith, and our desire to live in unity with our siblings from whom we may feel separated by ethnicity, skin color, or culture.

Many congregations within the Presbytery are already engaged in cross-cultural partnerships, often through shared community efforts or building space. People who responded to the Presbytery survey on cross-cultural ministry indicated a desire for more opportunities, training and support in developing these partnerships. Those who had engaged in partnerships already indicated that they increased a feeling of awareness, understanding and a feeling of connection because of them.

Currently we are in the midst of race and culture related crises. This is a kairos moment. We need to respond as partners in ministry. Please consider how your congregation or other Presbytery entity can further the peace and justice called for by our times, to help bring about the Beloved Community.

Attached is an application form to be completed by all entity partners. Grant amounts may vary up to $15,000. Propose what you think is reasonable for your partnership and make a case for it. The Committee on Representation will consider any grant proposals submitted at its monthly meetings.

We look forward to seeing how you intend to use your energy, intelligence, imagination, love, and some grant funds. Blessings.
