

Church Pianist Needed

We are seeking a passionate and versatile pianist to bring vibrant musical energy to Southminster Presbyterian Church in Beaverton, Oregon. We are a progressive congregation, fully inclusive and welcoming.

In this permanent part time role, you must be able to play nearly every Sunday morning, as well as additional services for Christmas eve and one or two Christmas concerts. The position entails 6-7 hours most weeks, with additional hours for performances and special services. Your typical week include being at the church for rehearsal prior to Sunday service, Sunday service, and group rehearsal on Wednesdays. You will consult with the pastor and Choir Director on appropriate selections, arrange for a substitute when not able to be present, and provide additional support for soloists or instrumental ensembles as needed. The pianist position requires facility with both traditional and contemporary styles, as we incorporate elements of classical, gospel, rock, and jazz.

The position pays $27-30/hour, or about $270 per week.

To apply, email personnel@southmin.org with your resumé and a cover letter detailing your background and interest in the position.

Thank you for considering this position. We would love to hear from you!
