PRESBYTERY NEWS

Presbytery of the Cascades November meeting Highlights
A summary by Stated Clerk John Huenink of the presbytery meeting: Highlights

Transitions in Cascades Presbytery
Transfers, pastoral changes and new pastors – Transitions

Theological Reflection Groups to form; sign up by Dec. 15
Following the successful experience of the initial Theological Reflection Group, the Relational Support Committee (RSC) announces formation of new groups dedicated to exploring the difficult theological issues facing the church today. Registration deadline is December 15; new groups will begin in January. Janet Alpine at the South Presbytery office will coordinate the formation of these new groups with RSC. If you or your congregation would like to participate or for more information, email Janet Alpine or phone 800-701-7313.

Mission Insite new provider of demographics
On the request of the New Church Development team, the Congregational Support Committee has changed demographic providers from Percept to Mission Insite. If churches need reports from the previous provider, Percept, they will be available from Mission Onsite when our account is established.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ordination and Installation
- Kathleen E. Brinegar will be ordained on Sunday, December 7, 2008, 3 p.m., at Westminster Presbyterian Church, Salem, to serve as stated supply pastor of Community Presbyterian Church, Oakland.
- The Rev. Dr. Gordon S. McClellan will be installed as Pastor at First Presbyterian Church, Corvallis on Sunday, December 7 at 4 p.m.

Commercial bread mixer needed by church
Tri-City Presbyterian, near Myrtle Creek, has a bread making ministry and needs to add a commercial bread mixer. Let them know the location, condition, make and model, and price - 541 643-9897 or PastorNesset@google.com. Thank you.

Presbyterians fast monthly to recognize world hunger
All Presbyterians are invited to join in a monthly fast (or light meals), including prayers, worship and education on the first weekend of the month. Read about the General Assembly year-long plan on the PCUSA website and here: Details Dates for next fast are December 5-7. Write CEE if your church is participating in the new General Assembly effort.

Energy Trust offers audits and incentive to congregations
If your congregation is in the territory of PGE, Pacific Power, NW Natural or Cascade Natural Gas, your energy efficiency upgrades may qualify for incentives on heating, lighting and kitchen equipment. They also provide energy audits which are free if you take action on recommendations. See EnergyTrust. John Knox Presbyterian Church in Keizer is featured on the Congregation Initiative Fact Sheet. With a $1,853 incentive from Energy Trust of Oregon, they installed roof insulation when replacing the roof, saving 2,000 therms of natural gas each year.

Volunteers still needed for repairs in NW Oregon
Phyllis Wright is the coordinator for presbytery volunteers in Clatsop County and Astoria. Who can do estimates on homes or cut and split log? There are also jobs in Columbia County and Vernonia to do drywall, painting and laying blocks. Details about storm damage needs: Recovery updates.
